BERLIN BOMBED DURING MOLOTOFF VISIT

GERMANY AND RUSSIA OF SINGLE MIND ON LEADING QUESTIONS

By The Associated Press

In the air: Despite bad weather R. A. F. bombers visit heart of Berlin during night and give Russian Premier-Molotov Commissar Molotov, in German capital for conferences with Hitler and other high Nazis, a taste of British air power; Germans say British fliers only reached suburbs; in addition to bombing other military objectives in Germany British bombers strike another successful blow at the Italian naval base at Taranto; Italians issue denial of British claims to have damaged three capital ships in Armistice night raid—they said story is "fantastic"; Nazi fliers again visit England after night in which little damage was reported.

Greek-Italian conflict: Greeks report Italian invasion army still retreating while Italian High Command reports Greek assaults in the Koritza zone (ten miles inside Albania) have been repulsed.

Diplomacy: Russian Premier-Molotov Commissar Molotov leaves Berlin after conferences with Hitler and vague Nazi communiqué reports: "The exchange of views x x x led to mutual accord on all important questions of interest to Germany and Russia."

French: Vichy government makes formal protest of expulsion of French-speaking subjects from province of Lorraine—the first sign of discord between the Petain-Laval government and Berlin.

BRIEF COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER SOVIET COMMISSAR STARTS HOME

BY LOUIS P. LOCHNER

Berlin, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler and Soviet Premier Molotov have agreed on a Russian sphere of interest lying generally between Japan's Far-Eastern sphere and Europe and Africa, sources usually reliable divulged today after Molotov had started for home.

With the exception of European Russia and Turkey, all of Europe and Africa will stand under the leadership of the Axis creators, Germany and Italy, these persons said.

Official confirmation of this was unobtainable, since the Wilhelmstrasse has made it plain that nothing will be said beyond this noon's communiqué, which stated that Germany and Russia have reached "a mutual accord on all important questions of interest" to both.

Molotov and his retinue left Berlin at 11 a. m. (4 a. m. E.S.T.) after two days of conferences with Adolf Hitler and other high Nazi leaders.

BRITISH SHELLS BURST IN ANSWER TO NEW HITLER DIPLOMACY STROKE

By The Associated Press

London, Nov. 14.—From hard-hitting Taranto, at the tip of Italy, to Berlin, the Royal Air Force's bombers struck last night, pressing home the offensive which the British say has crippled half of Mussolini's battle-ships and given the empire's combined sea-air power prestige throughout the world.

At Taranto, where three battleships and four other warcraft of

Sign of Discord Between Petain Government And Berlin is Seen in Expulsion Protest

Vichy, France, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The French government announced today it had protested to the German armistice commission concerning the expulsion of French-speaking residents from the province of Lorraine.

A communiqué, issued after an urgently-summoned cabinet meeting, said the Germans had given French-speaking Lorraine residents the choice of being expelled to Poland or France.

Since all chose France, the communiqué declared, the residents were being transferred into the unoccupied zone of France at the rate of seven trains daily.

The Germans were accused of telling the Lorrainers that the ac-

Expert Urging That Nation Plan Now For Bomb Shelters, Suggests Mines Be Used

Pittsburgh, Nov. 14.—(AP)—A Pittsburgh gas mask expert recommends that the nation start planning now how to protect its civilians from bomb and gas attacks in case of war.

William P. Yant, research director of the Mine Safety Appliances Company, said at the closing session of the Air Hygiene Foundation's fifth annual meeting yesterday "it is hoped that we will never have to do it, but after all there should be some plans and some thinking along such lines this year."

He said Germany began to orga-

Numerous Complications Arise Over Thanksgiving Holidays

These Men Talk Big, But in Different Tongues

Key man in this picture of Big Doings in Berlin is neither Soviet Premier Molotov, left, nor Nazi Foreign Minister Ribbentrop, right. He is the bespectacled interpreter in the center, who was privileged to sit in on this conference to translate talk of the "new world order" so the men of power in the picture could get on with their reorganization of the world.

G. O. P. Women Ask Patronage Equality

Harrisburg, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women adopted a resolution today, demanding equality with men when state and county governmental jobs are dispensed.

The resolution asserted women should be given a more prominent part in the government of the commonwealth.

Winding up the annual convention, the council also went on record as favoring a strict hands-off policy in wars on foreign lands.

Mrs. George Lamade, of Williamsport, elected without opposition, was installed as president, succeeding Mrs. Humbert Borton Powell, of Devon.

DIVINITY PUPILS GO TO PRISON

Eight Theological Students Who Refused to Register For Selective Service Are Sentenced in Federal Court in New York to Serve Year and a Day in Federal Prison After Entering Pleas of Guilty

PLACED IN CUSTODY OF U. S. MARSHAL

New York, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Eight theological students who refused to register for selective service were sentenced in federal court today to serve a year and a day in a federal prison to be designated by the attorney general.

The students were "conscientious objectors" from the Union Theological Seminary. When they were indicted Oct. 21 for refusing to register in compliance with the selective training and service act they pleaded guilty.

The court accepted U. S. Attorney John T. Cahill's recommendation for sentence, while noting that the maximum term possible was five years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine.

Federal Judge Samuel Mendelson said that if at any time within the period imposed the defendants decided to comply with the act the court would be "only too happy" to moderate the sentences.

On registration day after they were served with subpoenas, the students issued a statement saying, "we do not mean to evade conscription, but to face it in all sincerity, and try to make clear our reasons for not complying with it."

The sentencing was in a courtroom crowded with quiet, grave-faced men and women. Court attaches said it was one of the most solemn scenes they had witnessed.

The eight young men surrendered immediately and were taken to the office of U. S. Marshal Leo Lowenthal to be fingerprinted before removal to the federal house of detention.

DIES COMMITTEE TO STUDY AXIS ACTIVITIES HERE

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Evidence bearing on alleged activities of German and Italian agents in the United States was given a No. 1 spot today on the list of subject matter before the Dies committee on un-American activities.

With the State Department interposing no objections, Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) announced that the committee would resume its work next Monday or Tuesday, centering attention on the operation of German and Italian consular or other agents in this country.

Dies had not reached a decision whether the hearings, arranged after an exchange of telegrams with Secretary of State Hull yesterday, would be open to the public. Hull advised Dies that the question of public hearings was something for him to decide at his own discretion.

The embassies of both Axis powers have contradicted all assertions that officials of their government here have indulged in anything exceeding their official duties.

The State Department figured in the arrangements for the projected hearings when Dies, en route back to the capital, wired Secretary Hull that he intended to start the sessions unless the State Department felt they "would complicate international matters."

Hull replied that the decision was one for Dies' discretion as a legislative committee.

ITALIANS SHIFT TROOPS TO HALT GREEK ADVANCE

Athens, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Italians were reported today to be withdrawing large numbers of troops from the Yugoslav frontier and speeding them to southern Albania in an attempt to halt the Greek advance in that sector.

The shift in the Italian troop masses was regarded as an indication not only that the Italians are on the defensive, but that the British and Greek air attacks on the Italian naval base at Taranto and other Italian and Albanian bases had held up the transport of reinforcements from the Italian mainland.

Counter-attacking Greek forces were reported to have driven on a new salient into the center of the sagging Italian battlelines along the Albanian frontier and mopping up operations were said to be proceeding rapidly further south in territory abandoned by the Italian right wing.

By The Associated Press

Rome, Nov. 14.—(AP)—British bomber formations, seeking out the seat of Italian naval power in an effort to deliver crippling blows, again attacked the strongly fortified fleet base at Taranto and raided the southern port of Crotone, the High Command said today.

At the same time British announcements of the damaging of half of Italy's six best battleships and two of her cruisers in a Monday night aerial attack were described as "fantastic."

On its own account the Italian air force was reported to have counter-attacked the British naval base at Alexandria, bombing a cruiser, and shot aerial torpedoes into a convoy in the eastern Mediterranean to sink one steamer and damage another.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Chamberlain, heavily veiled, knelt on the floor, took chrysanthemum petals from her handbag and dropped them into the two-foot square, purple-lined crypt.

Prime Minister Churchill, clad in a long black coat stood intent among his cabinet ministers throughout the service at the graveside.

The Duke of Gloucester, brother of King George VI, represented the royal family. Mrs. Chamberlain curtsied when he shook hands and murmured his sympathies.

The archbishop of Canterbury offered the final prayer.

Many present were in uniform. The order of the burial service, printed in blue ink, had with it an air raid warning headed in flaming red: "Should it be necessary

Governor Indicates He May Ask Democratic Leaders to Help Work Out Session Program

Chief Executive Sees Little Point in Having Bills Knocked Down in House And Approved in Senate Because They Are Republican Measures

WORKING ON BUDGET

Harrisburg, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Governor James indicated today he may ask Democratic leaders of the legislature to meet with him and work out a program for the 1941 session.

The Democrats won control of the house in the November 5 elections. Republicans maintained domination of the administration and the senate.

The governor said he thought there would be little point in having bills knocked down in the house and approved in the senate simply because they were Republican measures.

Asked if he may request the controlling Democrats to meet with him and discuss the situation, James declared: "I think that is a splendid idea. There is much that can be done on which both

SIX CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY IN GARRETT CASE

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—(AP)—A conspiracy by which a family group hoped to wrest a $200,000 fortune from 20,000 other claimants was crushed under a jury's verdict today with six defendants facing possible sentences of 20 to 110 years.

Isaac Newton Sheaffer, Newark, Del., interior decorator, and five kinsfolk were convicted yesterday of falsifying family-Bible records to support a contention that they were the rightful heirs of the late Mrs. Henrietta E. Garrett.

This ended another sensational chapter in a worldwide fight for the millions her Quaker-husband, Walter, built with snuff at the turn of the century and left to her with the admonishment not to "let the snuggles get any of it."

But the widow, who spent her declining years alone with her pets and servants, failed to heed his advice. When she died, less than 10 years ago, she had bequeathed only a paltry part of the ever-growing fortune.

Then began one of the greatest treasure hunts in modern history. Claims poured in from virtually every state in the nation and many foreign lands. Even the state of Pennsylvania seeks the estate.

SPAIN SEEKING $100,000,000 LOAN FROM U. S.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—A Spanish request to the United States for a loan of $100,000,000 was reported today in informed diplomatic quarters.

No decision on the loan request has yet been reached. It was stated, and ultimate action was expected to await pending events in the European war and clarification of Spain's position in the conflict.

Some administration officials, it was understood, look askance at the Spanish request for financial assistance in view of the bitter attacks made in the government-controlled Spanish press against the United States, particularly in regard to this country's relations with other American republics, and the Philippines, once a Spanish colony.

The $100,000,000 loan is desired by General Francisco Franco's

INQUEST TO BE HELD IN NEW CASTLE BLAST

New Castle, Nov. 14.—(AP)—While the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced there was no evidence of sabotage in the explosion at the nearby plant of the American Cyanamid and Chemical Corporation, Coroner T. P. Nugent said he would hold an inquest in the case.

Three men were killed and a packing house demolished when a half-ton of dynamite blew up Tuesday.

An FBI official reported at Washington there was no evidence of sabotage in this case or in the two other explosions Tuesday. Three persons were killed at the Trojan Powder Company plant near Allentown, Pa., and eight at the United Railway Signal Company plant, Woodbridge, N. J.

The FBI spokesman said that the production speed-up in connection with national defense was almost certain to increase industrial accidents.

Forecasters Order Rain For Cornerstone Laying of U. S. Weather Bureau Building

BY EDDY GILMORE

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The United States weather bureau has waited for 52 years for a new home and now it looks as if the dedication ceremonies may be spoiled by all things the weather.

Should it rain tomorrow—and rain is just what the weatherman officials frankly don't want—what they'll do about the cornerstone-laying, it being a definite goal to lay a cornerstone from the inside out.

These seems to be only two choices: 1. Let all participating dignitaries get soaking wet. 2. Postpone the ceremonies.

For over a half century the bureau has been calling the turn of the nation's weather from a building which—so legend has it—

Two "Turkey Dinners" Are In Store for Citizens of Pennsylvania Who Observe Both President Roosevelt's and Governor James' Versions of Commemorations; Capitol Offices Close From Noon November 27 to Following Monday

MAIL DELIVERIES ARE AFFECTED BY CONFLICT

Harrisburg, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Two "turkey days" are in store for Pennsylvanians who observe both President Roosevelt's and Governor James' versions of Thanksgiving Day this year.

Although the president has proclaimed November 21 as the holiday, Governor James made November 28 the official date so far as the Keystone state is concerned, in a formal proclamation yesterday.

Without referring to the president's call for the observance on the third Thursday of the month, James remarked that the last Thursday of November was marked by both George Washington and Abraham Lincoln as the day of "public thanksgiving and prayer."

Capitol offices will be closed from Wednesday noon, November 27, to the following Monday.

EGYPT'S PREMIER DIES SUDDENLY

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Egyptian Premier Hassan Sabry Fasha collapsed and died today as he was reading King Farouk's speech from the throne at the opening session of parliament.

The premier was carried from the chamber and the reading of the speech was continued by the president of the senate.

Strangely, the words of the speech were much the same as those Sabry Fasha used in his first statement as new head of the government last July.

Then he said: "Egypt, who is anxious to maintain her integrity and independence is equally anxious to fulfill her obligations toward her great ally Britain and to carry out her alliance of friendship in the letter and spirit."

Today King Farouk said his country had "executed the treaty of alliance and friendship with Britain with complete sincerity, both in letter and spirit."

Egypt, he said, is jealous of her sovereignty and independence, and is "determined to conserve her security and maintain her integrity."

The premier undertook the task of organizing a coalition cabinet last summer after Italy entered the war. Previously he had served as minister of communications and minister of marine and war.

It was erected as a mid-victorian love nest.

The story is that a wealthy Washingtonian of the early 80's put up the building for his lady love, but she never learned to like the ugly red brick place. Even the interior left her cold. Despite its beautiful patio and a great hall sum-bursts decorations on the walls. So she left the boy friend flat.

In 1888 the government bought the heartbreak house for $150,000 and weather bureau forecasters moved their gadgets and maps into the beautiful halls and mahogany-paneled bedrooms. They've been working there ever since among the antique symbols of unrequited love.

Tomorrow they begin to get out—if it doesn't rain.

SPECIAL SCOUT MEETING HELD BY TROOP HERE

Boy Scout Troop 12, 1st Lutheran church, sponsored by Washington Bible Class, held special meeting of troop and troop committee Tuesday evening at the parish house. The occasion was the troop roll call, in connection with the nation-wide roll call being conducted for the entire United States of all Boy Scouts and their leaders.

Committeemen of Troop 12 include Charles Cable, Chairman, Floyd F. Repp, Claude King, Martin Wallin, Emil Schwab, Lloyd F. Taylor, Donald B. Stover, Wm. F. Highhouse, J. L. Bilstone, Warren E. Fehman, Franklin R. Hof and Karl Timm. Leo Gleese is Scoutmaster. John Larson is assistant Scoutmaster.

Elton Davis, representing the Warren county council, conducted the formal roll call.

Roll call included Scouts: Carl Barker, Raymond Bilstone, Robert Blume, Frank Chimenti, Francis Cole, LeRoy Dove, Jas. P. Eaton, Billy Engstrom, Rowell S. Hoff, Richard Kaiser, Jack Kammer, Myron King, Edw. Lauffenberger, Chas. Leuthold, Byron Mavrells, John H. Morris, Kendall R. Morrison, Dallas Myers, Norman Myers, Gerald Nelson, Eric Nystrom, Kenneth Park, Henry A. Peterson, Richard Randall, Wm. Rieder, Orlo Rieder, Frederick Schaefer, John Schultz, Eugene Schuler, Willard Smith, Charles Webster, Dale Winchester, Richard Yeagle. Reagan Houston, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster is now away at school. Jerald Wallin, Harold E. Shuman; Raymond Yeagle are enrolled as associate members of the troop. New members of troop 12, who will be formally registered on December 1st, are Kenneth Grosch, of Clarendon, and Robert Pring, of Warren.

Following the meeting, the members of the troop committee met with Scoutmaster Leo Gleese to map tentative plans for various activities for the various groups and assist in the individual advancement of the members.

LOCAL LEADERS OF GIRL SCOUTS HOLD MEETINGS

Two monthly meetings of Girl Scout workers were held Tuesday, the council members gathered at the home of the commissioner, Mrs. T. L. Armstrong, and the Girl Scouts Leaders Association meeting in the Y. W. C. A.

At the council meeting in the afternoon, reports from the Girl Scout Service Bureau, given by Mrs. R. W. Mackay, showed that in its first month the girls have given approximately 250 hours of volunteer service to Bundles for Britain and the Warren County Tuberculosis Society. In addition, Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts gave 32 garments to the Needlework Guild.

Mrs. A. M. Lopez and Mrs. E. P. Wroth reported on their trip to Harrisburg to attend the regional meeting on camping.

The scrapbook containing records of work of the public relations committee from September 1939 to June, 1940, was on display. Members were reminded that the local council was one of ten in the United States to receive an award for such work. The program and public relations committee received approval of the council for the celebration of Twelfth Night and the burning of Christmas trees and greens, to be held January 6.

Mrs. George Monroe was elected to membership in the council. Returns from some towns in the county campaign for funds showed that captains and workers are completing a thorough and systematic canvass. A tea planned for workers in the drive was postponed from today until a later date, because of conflicting meetings.

Miss Mary Holden, newly elected president of the leaders' group, was in charge for the first time at the evening session. It was voted to adopt a constitution and set of by-laws as soon as a possible form is submitted and approved. A committee for this purpose is to be named by the president.

Jasper Shepard, first aid instructor for the American Red Cross, gave a review of requirements for the Girl Scout proficiency badge to first aid. Mrs. Elizabeth Abbott gave instruction in knitting to those who chose that activity, while the remainder of the group formed a discussion on troop management.

The association will meet next on December 1st, when members will be entertained by the troop committee of Irvinedale School Troop 5.

N. L. R. B. RULING

According to an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, the National Labor Relations Board today ordered the Quaker State Refining Corporation of Farmers Valley to "cease interfering with its employees' right to self-organization" and to reinstate Richard M. Curran, an employee dismissed during an AFL organization drive in 1939. He is to be reinstated with back pay. The board stated that Curran, an employee of the company since March, 1927, was discharged on November 10, 1939, ten days after he was named vice president of the AFL union.

According to the National Safety Council traffic deaths rise in the fall and reach a peak in December. The reason is that drivers apparently fail to adjust themselves to winter conditions.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — Here's a quick glimpse at both sides of the footlights of New York's newest musical hit, "Cabin in the Sky." The fine performance of Donkey Wilson as the well-meaning but weak "Little Joe," to whom "natural" means only one thing—a story told by dice. . . . Buxom Ethel Waters taking bow upon bow as she ranges between pathos and jitters in the slightly bewildering but ever-interesting fantasy. . . . Sabled Park Avenue cheek by jowl with the cream of dusky Harlem in the audience. . . . Ralph Bellamy of the films drawing "oos" and "ahs" from the desks when he is discovered sitting unobtrusively in an aisle seat well back.

Rotund Sophie Tucker giggling as the diminutive Dooley goes from trouble to trouble in a hilarious sequence of events. . . . Pettinui's (Ethel Waters) melodious chanting of "Taking a Chance on Love," a tune that may become as big a hit as the show. . . . The swift pacing and change of tempo throughout the play—it opens with a death-bed scene, runs a course through the peace and quiet of "Little Joe's" backyard and the musical bedlam of a cabaret, to a fade-out representing the stairway to the pearly gates and the "Cabin in the Sky." . . . Almost everybody in town has a "piece" of this show. It is one Broadway production with more backers than players.

THIS column welcomes the appearance on the newstands of the new Stage magazine. Its first issue contains the complete script of "The Man Who Came to Dinner." This alone, or Alexander Woolcott's contribution for that matter, make it worth many times the price of admission.

The most abrupt theatrical failure of the year was a poor thing called "Tis of Thee," which closed after only one performance. . . . In all but five or six Manhattan skyscrapers the "13th" floor is omitted. . . . The numbers run up to 12 and jump to 14. . . . It's a superstition that never will die. . . . Hotel men say many guests absolutely refuse to accept rooms on floor 13.

Margie Hart, the strip-tease dancer, says she never has read a book. . . . Her press-agent describes her as "tall, curvaceous, red-haired, and slumberously eyed." . . . Richard Gerard, composer of "Sweet Adeline" has just turned 55. . . .

THE night before Maxine Sullivan began to sing at the Beachcomber I was telling Monty Prosser about that song she does so well—"Molly Malone." . . . Be sure she uses it, I urged him. . . . He had a funny look on his face for a minute and then began to hum a few bars. . . . "Is that it?" he asked. . . . "Sure," I told him. . . . "How did you know it?" . . . "I'm a Loney," he grinned. "My nurse used to sing it to me every night."

Eddie McInerker, who used to be a theatrical manager for Loew's and United Artists, is head of a clothing establishment in Washington, D. C. . . . If you like good bed reading, try "Three Harbors and "Stars on the Sea." . . . Maybe you don't like to read in bed. . . . I do. . . . I like to eat in bed. . . . Ilka Chase says she has a maid who is perfectly honest. "I ask if she ever told fibs," the actress reported, "and her answer was 'Only for the people I work for'."

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM HELD AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, Nov. 13.—Local Legionnaires, members of the Legion Auxiliary and invited guests totaling approximately 100 persons, attended a dinner party and program given in Frank M. Glendinning Post American Legion Home Monday evening in observance of the 22nd anniversary of the Armistice.

The program opened with the assembled guests singing a verse of the national anthem, after which they gave the pledge of allegiance. Prayer, offered by Joseph Benson, Legion chaplain, concluded the preliminaries and the dinner, of which chicken was the piece-de-resistance, was served.

The after-dinner program was in charge of Arthur Hanson, Legion post commander, who in remarking the purpose of the party and observance noted that of all the major nations of the world that participated in the Armistice of 1918, only the U. S. A. has remained and continues to remain at peace.

Mr. Hanson introduced the various Legion officers present, and Mrs. Orabel Shuck, past president of the Auxiliary, was called upon to introduce the Auxiliary officers who later in the program, the hopes and aims of the Auxiliary were expressed in an address given by Mrs. Elda Johnson, past president of the local Auxiliary and incumbent president of the Inter-County Council.

Prior to the address, Harry Peterson, immediate past commander of the Legion post was presented a past commander's cap, the presentation being made by Past Commander Howard Watson.

Interpreted in the program was a reading, "Flamers Field," by Mary Ann Christian, a piano solo, by Ann Yulze, a vocal solo, "I Am an American" by Evelyn Norlin, an accordion solo, by Mary Konesoba, harmonica music, played by Mrs. Hardy Carl, a Gold Star Mother, and a vocal offering, "God Bless America," by Miss Nolin with the audience joining in the final chorus.

The program was concluded with a playlet, given by Mrs. Anna Blodgett, chaplain of the Auxiliary.

Round and square dancing to music played by the Penn. Bottle orchestra followed and continued until 11 o'clock, at which time the observance and party was ended.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes
Flush Out Poisonous Waste

If you have an excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, head aches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Kidneys may need help the same as bowels, so ask your druggist for Dean's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Dean's Pills.

OFFICERS LIABLE

Unless they can prove themselves innocent of negligent and careless management six former officials of the closed Commercial Bank of Bradford, Pa., held accountable for $129,000 embezzled by five clerks, the Third U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Philadelphia. Five of the directors are dead and the order affects their estates. None of the officials was involved in the embezzlements which occurred during a 10-year period. The officials were likewise held liable for $129,000 in dividends paid when the bank was virtually insolvent because of the embezzlements.

Subsidies Is Theme Of Informal Address Given to Members

J. H. West delivered an excellent talk on "Subsidies" at the monthly dinner-meeting of the Warren Business and Professional Woman's Club, held Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. activities building.

Explaining the beginnings of subsidies in early shipping days, he followed the process through rivers and harbors to relief measures and the subsidizing of the individuals. He stressed the importance of this problem and the necessity for restoring the individual's spirit, faith, hope and courage.

Turning it one of the vital problems of the day, the speaker stated it was his belief that government officials in Washington have given the matter most serious study in the past eight years and in order to continue these fine things that the President has inaugurated, it is now necessary to turn the problem to the angle that will accomplish the restoration of these individual qualities mentioned above.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Leslie G. Forbes, routine reports were given; also reports on the Needlework Guild and Bundles for Britain work undertaken by the club. It was announced that members of the Warren and Youngs-ville clubs have been invited to a meeting of the Jamestown club, to be held next Tuesday, November 19, at Levan's. Members who did not make reservations during the meeting are asked to call Mrs. Corinne Dean not later than tomorrow evening. Plans for the Christmas meeting were then made and it was decided to continue the custom of bringing gifts for "key" sisters and the Children's Aid Society.

Mrs. Dean, on the program committee with Mrs. S. D. Blackman, presented Mr. West for his talk.

Philomel Members Hear Fine Program

The first regular program-meeting of the Philomel Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse, with Mrs. Evelyn Samuelson, club secretary and program chairman for the day, presiding.

She announced that a two-plant program is to be presented next Wednesday, November 20, in charge of Miss Lillian Larsen, with Mrs. Boris Waxman heading the hostess committee. On the following Wednesday, November 27, there will be no meeting because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. A. J. Franks made announcement of a Bundles for Britain bazaar to be held at the North Warren community house on December 6. Club members were asked to donate articles for the sales booth and to have them at the clubhouse no later than December 1.

Miss Samuelson then presented a very pleasing program, with piano numbers by Mrs. T. H. Conway, Miss Samuelson, Miss Gene Ezell, Mrs. Eugene Kuester and Mrs. Kenneth Bjers; a group of violin selections by Mrs. Frederick Olson, with Mrs. Conway at the piano; and a group of vocal solos

Social Events

Mr. and Mrs. William Wehner are at the head of a committee from St. Joseph's parish that is planning a special Thanksgiving party to be held in the school hall at eight o'clock next Tuesday evening, November 19.

There will be first and second prizes for contract, auction and five hundred winners; also a special duplicate game. The committee has arranged a special Thanksgiving feature to follow the play and serving of refreshments. Tickets have been going very fast for the event and, since the public is invited, a large attendance is anticipated.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS SUCCESSFUL PARTY

The benefit bridge given Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Club proved a success, socially and financially. High prize for the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. B. V. Lesser and high scorer at each of the 24 tables received a prize.

To conclude, tea was served at a table beautifully centered with chrysanthemums. Mrs. M. F. Cowden and Mrs. H. C. Jacobs presided.

DEMOCRATS HAVE VICTORY PARTY

About 100 Democrats from Warren, Pittsfield and Chandeliers Valley gathered at the home of Mrs. Egan at Chandeliers Valley on Tuesday evening for a special victory party. Mrs. Violet Bancroft, of Warren, president of the Warren County Federation of Democratic Women, spoke briefly and the remainder of the time was occupied with games, group singing and the serving of refreshments.

SENIOR DIVISION OF METHODIST GROUP

The November meeting of the senior division of the First Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service will be held in Dunham parlors at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. This is the annual thanksgiving meeting and all the women are asked to make a special effort to be present.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY SEWING MEETING

The Women's Auxiliary of the Warren General Hospital will hold a sewing meeting in its rooms in the maternity building at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. A large attendance is hoped for.

REBEKAH LODGE

The regular meeting of Lady Warren Rebekah Lodge will be held tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall. A social time will follow the meeting.

During August, 1940, 2476 units of new passenger cars and classes were exported. The total shipment was valued at $1,611,653, or an average value of $650 per unit, official figures show.

given by Mrs. Anna Wilson, with Mrs. Olson playing violin obligations and Miss Samuelson at the piano. All were in costumes of the Civil War period.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. A. P. Kottkamp and her committee served tea in the club parlors.

Different Style of Drama Is Arranged For Junior Offering

Although the high school has had some very clever one-act plays for assemblies, the dramatic season opens there officially at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening, November 22, when the curtain opens on "The Valley of Ghosts," to be given by the Class of 1942.

The time of this "ghostly" play is about midnight on the twenty-second of November and the scene, the Missouri Ozarks, where the late Lucile Evans, who died a year ago, had her home.

True to the title, the ghost atmosphere permeates every part of the play, but it is one mystery-comedy where the terror has its funny side up. For every scream and for every chill given the audience, there will be a chuckle ending in a laugh.

There are four darkies who are truly typical and lovable, while among the remaining characters are found the villain, the hero, the stooges, the heroine and the crazy woman.

All combined—plot, characters, rehearsal—should make a most enjoyable evening for students and the public.

GRACE CHURCH WOMEN'S MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service of Grace Methodist church will be held this evening at 7:45 at the church. All interested women of the congregation are cordially invited.

OBITUARY

JOHN P. BERDINE

Funeral services in memory of John P. Berdine, who passed away at his home, 114 Frank street, yesterday following a long illness, will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the home with the Rev. J. A. Davidson, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating. Interment will be in Oakland Lodge of Elks in charge of services at the grave.

Mr. Berdine was born August 11, 1871, in Spotsylvania, Va., coming to Warren 38 years ago. He was first employed by the former Wilburine Oil Works. Later he became a member of the city police force, serving as chief of police for six of his ten years in the department. He was then county detective for four years. In 1914 he purchased the City Dispatch Company, which he operated until 1934. In November, 1935, he was elected sheriff of Warren county and held that position from 1936 to January 1, this year, when he retired.

He was a member of the First Baptist church and of Warren Lodge No. 223, B. P. O. Elks. Besides his wife, he is survived by the following children: Ernest Berdine, John Berdine, Jr., Mrs. Lurania Kehrl, Ted Berdine and Mrs. June Hinton, of Warren, and Julius Berdine, of Erie. He also leaves 18 grandchildren and one brother, H. O. Berdine, of Birmingham, Ala. Three children, Frank Ray and Julia Berdine, preceded him in death.

MRS. CARL P. MALMROSE

Mrs. Amanda Swanson Malmrose, wife of Carl P. Malmrose, of 47 Bowen street, Jamestown, N. Y., died last night at the Jamestown General Hospital, aged 78 years. She was very well known in Warren.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Rose Nelson and Miss Florence Malmrose, of Jamestown; a sister, Mrs. Selma J. Nelson and two brothers, Alexander and Oscar Swanson, of Wilcox.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. from the Johnson family home in Jamestown. The body will be at the late residence until Sunday morning.

MRS. VIRGINIA HASKINS

Funeral services in memory of Mrs. Virginia Ann Haskins were held yesterday afternoon from the Frewsburg Baptist church with the Rev. Paul Young officiating. Music was furnished by Mrs. Charles Wigen and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, with Miss Ella Gilman at the piano. Interment was in Maple Grove cemetery at Frewsburg with the following as bearers: John Rhodes, John Stoddard, Herman Long, Elmer Johnson, William Long and David Danielson. Sunny Brook Rebekah Lodge had its service at the grave.

Those in attendance from away included the following: Olin Haskins, Lew Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Annis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Aldon Smith, Donald Campbell, Philip Beach, Velma Loris Smith, Walter Trude, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mrs. Nora Zellinger, of Lockport, N. Y.; Mrs. Lillie Annis and Floyd Thomas, of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stanton, of Lander; Lydia Cummings, of Akron, Ohio.

FRED G. DASEN

Fred G. Dasen, 100 Dobson avenue, died at the family home at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He was born December 28, 1865 and was united in marriage to Margaretha Egger in Bern, Switzerland, on April 28, 1889. They came to America in August, 1892, and had since resided in Warren. Mr. Dasen was a charter member of the Salem Evangelical church.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Mrs. Leon Scheerer and Mrs. Florine Larson, Warren, and Mrs. Leah Johnson, Portland, Ore. A son and a daughter, Fred and Helen, preceded him in death.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed and will be announced later.

MRS. LUCIUS FLASHER

Edith Flasher, wife of Lucius Flasher, passed away at her home in Tidouate Wednesday morning, following a short illness of pneumonia. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons and one daughter, Billy, Robert and Edith Elizabeth; also her father, Victor Johnson, of Warren, and one brother, Lawrence Johnson, of Tidouate.

Funeral services will be held at West Spring Creek at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. John Bengtson. Miss Ann Hallstrom and Miss Adelaide Swanson sang "One Sweetly Solenn Thought" and "He the Pearls Gates Will Open". Interment was made in Oakland cemetery, with the following acting as bearers: Clarence Johnson, Everett Johnson, Elmer Sequist, Edwin Sequist, Arthur Morine and Harold Morine.

CARL N. SEAQUIST

Funeral services in memory of Carl N. Seaquist, 18 Hinkle street, were held at the Bethlehem Congregational church at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. John Bengtson. Miss Ann Hallstrom and Miss Adelaide Swanson sang "One Sweetly Solenn Thought" and "He the Pearls Gates Will Open". Interment was made in Oakland cemetery, with the following acting as bearers: Clarence Johnson, Everett Johnson, Elmer Sequist, Edwin Sequist, Arthur Morine and Harold Morine.

Attending the rites from out of town were the following: Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Soderlund, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rydell, Mrs. Russell Carlson, Fred Carlson, Andrew Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs.

EARL R. SMALL GETS INSURANCE AWARD

The following, submitted by The Edward A. Woods Company, of Pittsburgh, will be read with interest by many friends of Mr. Small:

Earl R. Small, of this city, was among the sixty leaders in The Edward A. Woods Company's sixtieth anniversary campaign which culminated in a banquet last Friday night at the William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh. He received an award from Thomas L. Parkinson, President of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, who was the guest of honor at the agency's banquet.

Mr. Small, who entered the life insurance business over thirty-five years ago, has been, with the exception of three years served during the World War, continuously with the Edward A. Woods Company the largest single agency of any life insurance company in the world. Through this association he has had the privilege of having met and knowing personally all of the presidents and many of the high ranking officials of the Equitable throughout these years. He is a graduate of Carnegie Tech in the life insurance course given by that institution, and of many field and correspondence courses given by the Equitable. He has made extensive study along the lines of special apportionment clauses, income and optional modes of settlement of life insurance contracts, and the special exemptions granted life insurance under federal income and inheritance tax laws. Through training and experience he is competent in helping you solve your life insurance problems.

Much Interest Shown In Studio Meeting Of Warren Players

Mrs. William H. Wright and Mac Corah were directors for two very interesting plays given at the monthly studio meeting of the Warren Players in the Woman's Club auditorium last evening.

The first play, "The Flattering Word," was given by Mac Kinan, as the Rev. Loring Ripley; Mary Helen Johnson as Mary, his wife; Millie Kopp, as Mrs. Zooker; Kathleen Simmons, as Lena; Bill Moore, as Eugene Tesh. This work of Eugene Kelly had for its scene a room in the church parsonage.

"Twenty-five Cents" by W. Eric Harris had for its cast Myrna Hoagvall, as Maggie Fisher, Fern Mostert, as Mrs. Kate Swanson; Mac Corah, as Bill Fisher; Ann Neal, as Gerte Fisher; Frank Cruickshank, as Benny Fisher; James Kanengeiser, the policeman.

Besides the directors, the following were members of the production staff for this first fall studio meeting:

Prompters, Lucille Corbett and Hazel Smith; stage settings, Dr. Sperry Kinton and David Crosscut; properties, Betty Jane Branch, Jane Walker and Romaine Meacham; stage lighting, George Cunningham; program committee advisor, Marie Jamieson; script typists, Margery Lloyd, Mary Trusler and Margaret Adams.

After the program, a very enthusiastic meeting was held by active members with the president, Mrs. Wallace Cowden, in charge.

PITTSFIELD COUPLE HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home at Pittsfield on November 6 by entertaining a group of relatives and friends that evening.

A delightful lunch was served, carrying out a color scheme of blue and white. A miniature bride and bridegroom were used as the centerpiece. The guests of honor received many lovely gifts including a sum of money.

Guests were Clarence Kelly, Westfield, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Williams and family, Busti, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Davis and daughter Kay, Youngsville; Mr. and Mrs. William Gates, Mrs. Ethel Gates and son, Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, Walter Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellis and daughter, Jean, Grand Valley; Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Dey, Mrs. Clara Schell, Richard Haller and daughter, June, Torpedo.

LEGION AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

At the Tuesday night business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, plans were discussed for serving the men's membership dinner this evening and for a Bunkies for Britain card party later. Reports were given concerning the successful Armistice Day dinner and for remembrances to veterans in local hospitals on that day, the latter handled by the rehabilitation committee under the direction of Mrs. Clara Froud.

It was announced that the annual membership round-up for the auxiliary will be on November 16 and that the next regular meeting will be in conjunction with a turkey dinner. Mrs. John Driscoll will be in charge.

Miracle Prices Because:

Large reductions are made available to you now, right in the middle of the season, months before you'd expect to get such bargains.

Miracle Prices Because:

Not less than half of all stock of coats, dresses and hats must be sold in order to make room for holiday goods now arriving.

Miracle Prices Because:

Millers believe in "cleaning house" more than once a season rather than the once-only-end-of-the-season clean-up which most stores have.

Miracle Prices Because:

Miller's policy of high style, low price calls for faster turn-over, quicker mark-downs—and always a fresh new stock from which to choose.

PLEASEING TALKS ARE GIVEN AT KIWANIS CLUB

Two very interesting talks were enjoyed by members of the Warren Kiwanis Club, at their weekly luncheon meeting at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday noon. Speakers were Dr. Harold C. Warren, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Miss Jean Morrison, Warren High School senior.

Miss Morrison, first speaker on the program, gave an interesting talk on Americanism and good citizenship in connection with the observance of National Education Week.

Dr. Warren's talk, in keeping with Armistice week, included the local minister's experience as a Y. M. C. A. worker in France during the World War.

S. M. McClure, chairman of the Warren County Chapter, American Red Cross, told of the progress of the current Roll Call.

Guests at the meeting included J. L. Gilliland, of Oil City; John VanOrsdale, of Russell, and N. N. Jaquish.

Around New York

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—My secretary, Asia, speaks:
Dear GT: The Plaza publishing people called to say they were sending you a new crossword puzzle book. . . . And Washington telephoned to say your Social Security Number was 087-10-2784. . . . They didn't mention your draft number, and neither did I. . . . Did I do right?

And, oh yes. . . . Billy Rose dropped in to ask about you and to say he was sure burlesque was dead. He said he didn't have anything against the good, and I am quoting him, hard-working people employed in what's left of burlesque any more than the engineers and personal guides against the drivers of these cars. But he went on to say the American people had decided that pay dirt was to be found only in clean shows, with the result that smut and nudity practically were bankrupt in this country.

WELL, just after Billy left who do you think walked in? . . . Yep, I hear. . . . He said, "If that guy Billy Rose has been in here running down burlesque," and I am quoting, "he's insane." He said all you have to do is look at the line of customers in front of the Gaiety. . . . The Gaiety is a burlesque house that carries on all the time, and he wants me to ask you what is the difference between burlesque strip tease and the strip tease in Billy's floor show at the Diamond Horseshoe? . . . I told him I would.

That was a nifty about the drunk in the elevator. . . . That cop friend of yours in front of the building says Pat O'Brien is the darling of the police force. . . . He says all the cops who can get off always meet him at the station when he comes in. . . . He says they like Cagney and Humphrey Bogart too. . . . Well, who doesn't? . . . You should have seen the crowd hanging around Cagney at the Lambs the last time he was here.

THE mayor is continuing his drive against dirty magazines on the newsstands. . . . I'm dying to know what you think about "Suzanna and the Elders." . . . And about the Fair closing. . . . Oh, yes, the Hartmans just called to thank you for that nice notice you wrote about their show at the Versailles. . . . And John Buckmaster says you think his impersonation of H. V. Kaltenborn is good; wait till you see him work out on Lovell Thomas. . . . Please tell him I told you what he said when you see him.

Frank Case called and said he was sending you a copy of his new book. . . . Datto Ernest Henigway. . . . Wonder what he'll do with all that money the movies are paying him? . . . That man who sells ties was in again today but I told him you had a tie. . . . Kay Kyser called. . . . He wants to know why you haven't been over to the Waldorf to see him. I told him you'd been out of town, but would positively get over soon.

Please do, honey. . . . Bob Jervis called and wanted you to endorse a new brand of gin. . . . I mixed that in a hurry. . . . There's a cable for you under your old hat on the radiator. . . . May be important. . . . Be sure and look at it. . . . In your recent essay on hand leaders and comics who fly their own planes you omitted the name of Wayne King. . . . The list also includes Rochester (Jack Benny's stooge), and Clarke Dennis. . . . That's all now. . . . Asia.

Who Killed Aunt Maggie?

By MEDORA FIELD

YESTERDAY: Sally and her husband, Bill, are giving a week end party at their country house near Atlanta to celebrate the engagement of two friends, Bob and Claire. But Aunt Maggie crashed the party, and so did Eve, who had tried hard to win Bob from Claire. And now the house is a tangle of terror, because Sally just has found Aunt Maggie, choked to death in the back hall.

Chapter Eight The Grip Of Fear

I TRIED to tell myself that Eve was desperately unhappy and that this was what made her lash out at people. And that she was unhappy because she either didn't know what she wanted or, perhaps, didn't realize what she wanted until it belonged to someone else. But, anyway, it would not mend matters for me to lose my head. And there was no gain saying the fact that she was right about the unhappy consequences which must follow in the wake of murder.

So I said, "Bob, don't you think it would be a good idea to get Alice a sip of brandy? Will anyone else have a drink?"

Bob brought in a decanter and glasses from the dining room and both Alice and Eve took the small drinks offered, after which he poured quite large ones for himself. "And now if you girls will excuse me a moment," he said, "I'll go upstairs and get my pipe."

"Hurry back," Alice told him, obviously braced by the brandy. "That awful pipe," Eve chimed in. "Hasn't Claire made you throw it away yet?"

Bob pretended not to hear as he passed through the doorway, and we all settled down in silent gloom before the fire. Claire lit a cigarette and it was then I noticed where Eve had tossed several half-smoked ones to the hearth, their tips smeared with lipstick. There were plenty of ash trays about and, although I knew her carelessness was due to natural nervousness under the circumstances, it did bring back Aunt Maggie's remark about the impossibility of being what she called "well born" at the age of thirty.

And that made me think of something else. Of Eve's threat when Aunt Maggie spoke of going to Eve's divorced husband. And of their later passage-at-arms in the library. Yet I believed at the time and I believed now that Eve had not meant her threat literally.

And so we sat and stared into the fire.

"Golly," Eve ejaculated finally, "what a pleasant little party this turned out to be!" It was on the tip of my tongue to remind her that she had invited herself, but I decided against that. She had been enough trouble on hand without letting Eve stir up more. From the way Alice looked at me, I knew she also would like to tell Eve this and plenty besides. But she restrained herself and, shivering slightly, inquired instead, "Why doesn't Bob come back?"

It did seem that Bob had been gone a longer time than his errand required, but just as I was about to say that he no doubt would be along in a moment every light in the house went out, plunging the library into darkness relieved only by the glow of the coals in the fireplace.

Alice screamed. Eve said "Damn," and Claire and I, both reaching out to clasp hands with Alice, found that our own hands had come together instead.

"There are matches on the table," I said, groping for them in the darkness. As I lit the candles on the mantel and table and secretary to flickering flames, Eve stirred up the coals and put another log on the fire.

Light At Last
"WHAT the devil do you suppose has happened now?" she asked.

"It's the murderer," Alice whimpered. "We'll all have our heads cut off!"

Well, that's no reason why we should lose them beforehand, snapped Eve. "Anyway, it is probably only this damned storm."

"Yes," I hastened to agree. "Of course, it is the storm. I don't suppose Bob will ever be able to find his way out of there now. After this I shall certainly provide flashlights for every room."

Eve smiled one of her cryptic smiles and said nothing; but I gathered that what I did about flashlights in the future was of small interest to her, as she obviously did not intend to be among those present.

"You can call it the storm, if you like," Alice quavered, "but after all, Aunt Maggie was murdered. Then there's the telephone. And now the lights."

from the outside could take the situation in hand."

"Bessie insists that she is going with Andrew," Eve observed. "And on a night like this there's marital devotion for you."

"That's not consideration for Andrew," said Bill, dryly. "Bessie's scared to stay alone in the servants' house."

"No me there didn't seem anything so strange about Bessie's timidity. I didn't want to be alone anywhere myself right then. That made me think of Bob. 'I suspect you had better rescue Bob,' I told him. 'He's probably wandering around upstairs like a lost soul in the outer darkness.'"

But Bob himself appeared just then, having had matches in his pocket and having located his bedside candle, as he explained. "Didn't I hear you say you had sent Andrew to Roswell?" he asked Bill.

At Bill's assent Bob seemed to hesitate, as though he wished to say something but feared to offend. "You don't seem to approve," Eve remarked. "Any suggestions?"

"No, no," Bob hastened to reply. "Only had anybody thought Bessie we have sent away the two people who were nearest the scene at the time of the crime?"

"You're barking up the wrong tree there, old man," Bill assured him. "We've had Bessie and Andrew ever since we were married, and while that may be a life-time, Bessie's mother, who died a year or so ago, was Aunt Ann's cook for thirty years."

"Longer than that," I said. "Your Aunt Ann says she practically raised Bessie."

"There you go," Eve told just like Aunt Maggie. "Talking just like family, family, family. After all, it is possible for murderers to have parents just the same as anyone else."

"But it is silly to suspect Andrew," Bessie chimed in. "After all, if that had been their intention, they had plenty of opportunity last night when they were all out here alone."

"Still," Bob argued, "we might as well face it. Somebody who was in the house at the time has to be guilty. And if not the servants—"

"Then the guests," Eve finished for him.

"Or some outsider," I suggested.

"That's a thought," Bob agreed. "And this outsider may still be inside."

"That's what I've been thinking all the time," wailed Alice. "We'll search the place," said Bill, determinedly.

"But I don't want to be left alone," Alice wailed again.

Flat Tires
AT THAT moment Andrew appeared in the doorway. "Mr. Bill, sir," he announced when all eyes were turned upon him, "I done had a accident."

"Accident?" we all echoed. "What do you mean, accident?" Bill demanded.

"Yes, sir, Mr. Bill. First I find a flat tire. I done use the spare this afternoon, so I have to pump it up. Then when I get it changed and Bessie and me are going out the gate, just as we get to where the road has been worked on, we skid and run into a tree. I tried and I tried, but I can't get that engine started up again. What I come to ask you is, can I use your car, Mr. Bill, or yet Miss Sally's? I dunno whether I get any farther. I did the best I could, but I try if you road the word. That road's mighty bad. Yes, sir, mighty bad. And it ain't stopped raining one minute since it start up this afternoon."

"Well," said Bill, "we've got to get word to Roswell, somehow. I hate to make you try it on a night like this and over that road, but I suppose you will just have to take my car and see what you can do. It's too bad we have no tire chains."

"Yes, sir, Mr. Bill, thank you, sir," said Andrew and he went out. "How about that search party?" asked Kirk. "If the girls don't want to be left alone, suppose we divide into two groups, one of us starting in the basement, the other on the top floor, and meeting on the second floor?"

"Let's all be sure we have plenty of matches, in case our candles go out. By the way, Sally, isn't there a flashlight here somewhere?"

"There's one in the compartment of my car," I answered, hoping there was. "And Andrew probably has one in the station wagon."

"I'll tell him to bring one in before he gets away," said Bill, going back toward the kitchen.

"You know, that's a funny thing," he said, when he came back. "My car had a flat top. Andrew's changing it now. I suppose it must have been all those workmen we had out here. Don't see any point in leaving nails around though."

For our search, which finally ended, Bill and Eve and Claire decided to start from the basement, while the rest of us climbed to the third floor. I don't think Claire was very keen about going with Eve, but Alice was bent on sticking close to Bob and I somehow couldn't bring myself to face that back passage just then.

In the study I noticed the paper which had been propped against the inkwell was there no longer.

SHEFFIELD TWP. SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Sheffield, Nov. 14—The November meeting of the township school board, deferred a day because of the holiday Monday, was held on Tuesday evening in the high school with C. H. Whittaker, president, in charge.

Business was of a routine nature and consisted mainly of the regular reports, among which were the treasurer's, the school nurses', school statistical and tax duplicate.

The board declared a three-day Thanksgiving vacation for this year, to begin with the close of school, Wednesday, November 27, and extend through Monday, December 2, with classes to be resumed Tuesday morning, December 3.

Acting on complaints received that motorists are disregarding stops and other warning signs in the vicinity of the school buildings, a practice that endangers the lives of the students, the directors issued a warning that the aforementioned traffic areas are being watched and that henceforth failure to observe the traffic will result in arrest and prosecution of all violators.

Directors in attendance at the meeting included Mr. Whittaker, L. B. Jones and Chris Yutze. Directors absent were Mrs. Anna Mervine and J. T. Phillips. Also present were School Principals L. O. Eisenhauer, Wayne Chamberlain and D. J. Howard.

ROTARY MEETING
The regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club was held on Tuesday noon in Cederlof hall with 20 members and guests present. The speaker for the occasion was Milton Dunn, local druggist, who spoke on the topic, "Consumer's Buying."

The out-of-town guests were: William Yeager, head of the Consumer's Discount firm, Warren; Steve Tait, Warren county farm agent, also of Warren; Leslie Lummis, Jr., of Birdsboro, N. Y.

HONOR NEW SUPT.
The congregation of the Methodist church gave a tureen dinner in the church dining room Tuesday evening in honor of Rev. J. A. Galbraith, new superintendent of the Jamestown district of the Methodist church, and Mrs. Galbraith.

The dinner was followed by the regular business meeting of the church, which was conducted by Dr. Galbraith.

HOSPITAL PATIENT
Mrs. Sam McIntosh, who has been ill several months, is a surgical patient in the Kane Community hospital.

Sam Lewis, former C. P. L. Company employee, has accepted employment in Titusville and the family shortly will move to that city.

After letting Cincinnati carry off the important open pair championship at the recent Pennsylvania State Tournament Pittsburgh settled down to capture the team-of-four title. The winning team was Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Katzen, George G. McClure and Jerry Gelman. The second team, also from Pittsburgh, was Mrs. Grace Lear, Mrs. E. B. Culp, Arnold Levine and William Woodruffe.

Team-of-four is the most interesting form of duplicate. The North and South pair of Team A play the board against the East and West pair of Team B. Later Team B's North and South pair play the same board against the East and West pair of Team A. The score of the North-South and East-West pairs of each team is added and the team that is plus is awarded a win on the board.

The Penn State champions won their match on today's hand because George McClure realized that his North-South opponents would probably play the hand at spades. He could see that their only possible losers were two hearts, so in order to win the board, he had to make at least five no trump. Therefore, he promptly took the club finesse and when it held he had won the match, as five no trump counts ten more points than five spades.

A small animal of the Pyrenees, the desman, has such a long, mobile nose that it can thrust it into its own mouth.

Why sneeze?—Try New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso

Pittsfield
Pittsfield, Nov. 13.—Mrs. James Stewart, a recent bride was honored with a kitchen shower on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Myrtle Haight and Mrs. Jessie Haight. A social time was enjoyed following which dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses. The honor guest received many lovely and useful gifts for her new home.

Mrs. Alice Summerson and Mrs. Ruth Wilcox entertained at a shower party in honor of Mrs. Lorraine Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy have closed their summer home here and left on Wednesday evening, November 6th to spend the winter in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The members of the Ladies' Aid of the United Brethren church served dinner and supper in the church dining room on election day.

A fine interest is being shown in the revival meeting being held in the Wesleyan Methodist church. Rev. G. I. Norman, the evangelist from Olean, N. Y., has brought very helpful messages each evening. Rev. Ted Bartlett, also of Olean, is the song leader and has accompanied on the violin by Rev. Norman. These meetings which started on Wednesday evening Nov. 6th will continue through Nov. 24th, each evening at 7.30 except Saturday evenings. Rev. Markell, pastor of the church extends a cordial welcome to all to attend these meetings.

Brownies of troop 48 enjoyed songs, games and stories with Mrs. Harold Thompson.

Girl Scouts of troop 28 and their leaders are grateful to Charles Anthony, John Hall and Fred Freeman for their kindness in placing the stove, donated to them by Mrs. Amelia Heineman.

Through the Scouts an invitation was extended to each mother or guardian, council members and all others interested in Scouting to meet with Mrs. Althea Correll Scout executive of Warren on Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 10 a. m. in the Scout room for a four-hour training course, with one hour from 12 to 1 given over to tureen luncheon. Following this meeting the Girl Scouts will meet for their regular meeting.

A drill on the Scout laws was followed by a short talk by the leaders on how living each day according to their ten laws will help each girl to build a beautiful character.

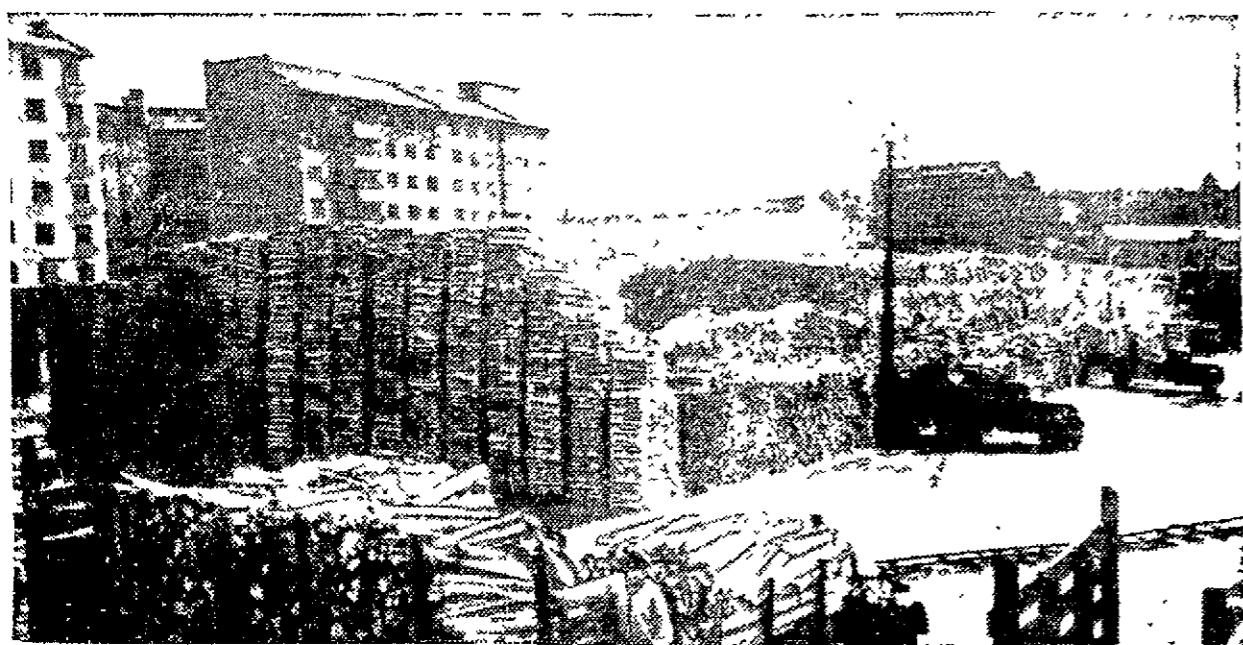

The meeting closed with songs and the wishing circle.

The chapel exercises on Friday morning were in charge of Mrs. Mary B. McGraw, teacher of 3rd and 4th grades and were held in Mrs. Trevis' room.

As a special feature of Armistice Day the program was entirely patriotic.

NEED BALANCE
Erie, Nov. 14.—(P)—Philip Reed, chairman of the General Electric Company, said a balance is necessary to prevent prices from booming as a result of the defense program. Reed, who came here yesterday to inspect the company's local plant, said the nation needs to find a way "to keep a balance whereby the production of peace-time material can keep pace with the added demand for it created by bigger payrolls."

Only One Letterman Available For 1941 Dragon Eleven

Comparative Scores Favor Ariels In Tilt With Jackets Sunday

For the first time in several seasons, the Jamestown Ariels will have comparative scores in their favor when they clash with the Warren semi-pros.

With a 7-0 win over the Lockport Daunces, who held the Tonawanda Eldredge Club-Buffalo Liberty Halls, to a scoreless tie, and a 13-7 victory over the Batavia Essos, who deadlocked the Daunces 6-6, the Jamestowners have every reason to feel that they have more than an outside chance to top the Red Jackets at Russell Field next Sunday. The Jackets were tripped by the Tonawanda-Buffalo eleven, 14-7.

The Ariel lineup is for the most part composed of former Jamestown High luminaries which means that many men from each team will be squaring off for the second or third time, as the Jackets also boast plenty of ex-Dragons.

Dean and Fagerstrom will be the ends. Abigdon and Barry at tackles. Elfin and Guichard at guards and Thayer at center. In the backfield are DeSantis, Day, LaJohn and Sorenson.

Reserve linemen include Barnes, Colander, Johnson, Triscari and Underwood, with Champion and Thompson reserve backs.

Seven of the starting men are J. H. S. grads. DeSantis and LaJohn starred for Falconer High and Elfin and Day were with Purdue and Adrian, respectively.

The first string combine average well over 150 pounds and is noted for being a stubborn defensive club. With the Jackets famed for the same quality, the clash should develop into a hammer and tongs fray.

The kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

DRAGON-ALUMNI TILT SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The 1940 Dragon varsity will meet the alumni in the annual post-season fray Saturday afternoon at Russell Field, it was announced this morning by Director of Athletics J. B. Leidig.

Among the players who will face the high school eleven are Harold Brown, Kenny Christiansen, Tony Massa, "Dubby" Ruhlman, Bob Jensen, Chet Munksgard, "Whizzer" Rogers, "Pidge" Stewart, Bob Schumann, Ernie Sedon and Clair Ward, and there is a possibility that "Shanly" Larsen, husky 1939 tackle, may come down from Buffalo to face his old mates.

Missing will be Harold Giegerich, varsity center last year, who enrolled in the U. S. Navy.

PIAA MEMBERS ARE VOTING ON 'W' Wearer To Return; Eighteen Awarded

Harrisburg, Nov. 14.—(P.)—Two proposed amendments to the by-laws that would restrict eligibility of junior or senior high school athletes transferring from one school to another, and secondary sports contests between senior high school and college freshman teams, have been placed before P. I. A. A. members for their vote.

Secretary Edmund Wicht has mailed copies of the suggested changes to the nearly 900 association members who will vote "yes" or "no" at district meetings to be arranged later.

The first amplifies the present ruling that a pupil changing schools is eligible for sports competition "when his parents or legal guardian move to the new district." The new ruling specifies eligibility "when the natural parents move into the new district to which the pupil transfers, or in the event of the death of one parent, when the surviving natural parent moves to the district to which the pupil transfers." Eligibility of a transferring pupil "involving legal adoption or legal guardianship" would depend upon the sanction of both the district committee having jurisdiction, and the PIAA board of control.

The second proposed change could permit senior high school members of the association to compete with college freshman teams in swimming, volleyball, gymnastics, track and field meets, cross country, golf, tennis, archery and rifle shooting, only if the college teams "are composed entirely of first-year college students who are not more than one year older than the maximum age limit as provided for PIAA competition among PIAA member schools—in other words, not more than twenty years old, since the PIAA age limit is 19.

Dick Johnson Is Lone 'W' Wearer To Return; Eighteen Awarded

R. D. "Dick" Johnson, reserve halfback, will be only letterman reporting to Coach J. B. Leidig's 1941 Dragon football squad, it was revealed this morning with the announcement of the men who have been awarded their football "W."

Of the fifteen players, ten will graduate and four will be ineligible because of age or semester rulings.

Co-captains Walt Fredericks and Joe Tamburine will receive their second varsity awards at the exercises while the following will get their initial letters: Robert Brown, Rex Graham, James Harding, Victor Huffman, Richard D. Johnson, Robert G. Johnson, Jack Karl, Floyd Landers, George Niederer, Myron Rydholm, William Sperry, Donald Wolfe and Paul Zahranski.

Three managers will also receive letters. Donald Bathurst, Leon Culbertson and Ernest Stewart.

SPORT SPATTERINGS by Bill Rice

Dragon rooters should not get too discouraged because Dick Johnson will be the only wearer of a "W" who will be in the lineup of the Blue and White next autumn. Watching second team games this year, we saw quite a group of youngsters who will be good varsity material by next fall. The backfield, of course, will be built around the returning halfback, who can draw mates from reserve leather-toters Mike Biech and "Slim" Salerno, a couple of hard-driving huskies; Don Sharp, who showed much promise until injured in the Oil City encounter; Dick Kifer, southpaw triple threat, whose only handicap this season was inexperience and lack of weight, and several others. The line will have such capable performers as Leon Christiansen, Tony Marasco, Larry Krespan, Leroy Fredericks, Lloyd Dickerson, Bob Engle, Bill Hartnett, Paul Chock and other lads whose names escape us for the moment.

Sunday's fracas between the Jackets and the Ariels will probably ring down the curtain on football in Warren for the season, for the weather is so uncertain that the scheduling of another semi-pro tilt would be inviting trouble. The Jamestown clash is always a great climax, and we expect to see hundreds of Ariel fans on deck as the rivalry is fanned by the steenth chapter in independent grid relations. Until last season Jamestown hadn't been given a shot at the local semi-pros since 1935 and, even though the Jackets were on the crest and one of the best known teams in the east, this fray drew the largest crowd in many seasons, not excepting when the locals met "Whizzer" White and his Pittsburgh Pirates. Both teams have the same weakness, a dearth of reserves, but both have pulled the iron man stunt successfully.

You said it! ... Despite the financial warping taken by the backers of the Detroit entry in the National Professional Basketball League last year, the automobile city is evidently not cured ... The great "Dutch" Dehnert, long of the Celtics and originator of the pivot, has been signed to coach the Eagles this season ... Altoona and Johnstown high schools are going to investigate that affair at Altoona which resulted in the Railroaders winning a forfeited tilt, 1-0 ... And guess who will be there as an "observer" ... Edmund C. Wicht, of the P. I. A. A. ... When the Bradford Orvis whipped Olean Monday 14-2, it marked the second win of the season for the Phugmen ... But when they tripped Olean it made a successful season ... And if Johnsonburg has such a hot team, how come they could beat Ridgway only 12 to 2, do you suppose? ... If they're going to call the Indians "Peck's Bad Boys," did anyone remember to dub the 1940 Tribe "The Mis-Vitts"? ... Yeah, we thought they must have ... Two of the rookies who are startling the Conewango Club circuit this season are Ray Regd and "Mac" McGrath ... The new telephone company manager just had to make good on the alleys, being successor to Jack Sweeney ... We're glad to join in the gladhand being extended Oil City scribes who drew the year's toughest assignment—keeping a stiff upper lip while the Oilers were going without a victory ... They should have been on this desk in 1929!

BILLY MEYER OR JIM WILSON MAY PILOT CHI CUBS

Chicago, Nov. 14.—(P.)—The man most likely to succeed Gabby Hartnett as Chicago manager? Cub fandom and observers say it's Jimmy Wilson or Billy Meyer.

They digested yesterday's sudden announcement that Hartnett was fired after 19 years with the Cubs as catcher and manager, slept on a formal statement by Owner P. K. Wrigley, woke up to day reflecting on several new turns in the baseball world, then based their nominations on:

WINNING PLAYS OF 1940

Georgetown, Unbeaten in Three Seasons, Uses This Cut-Back Play

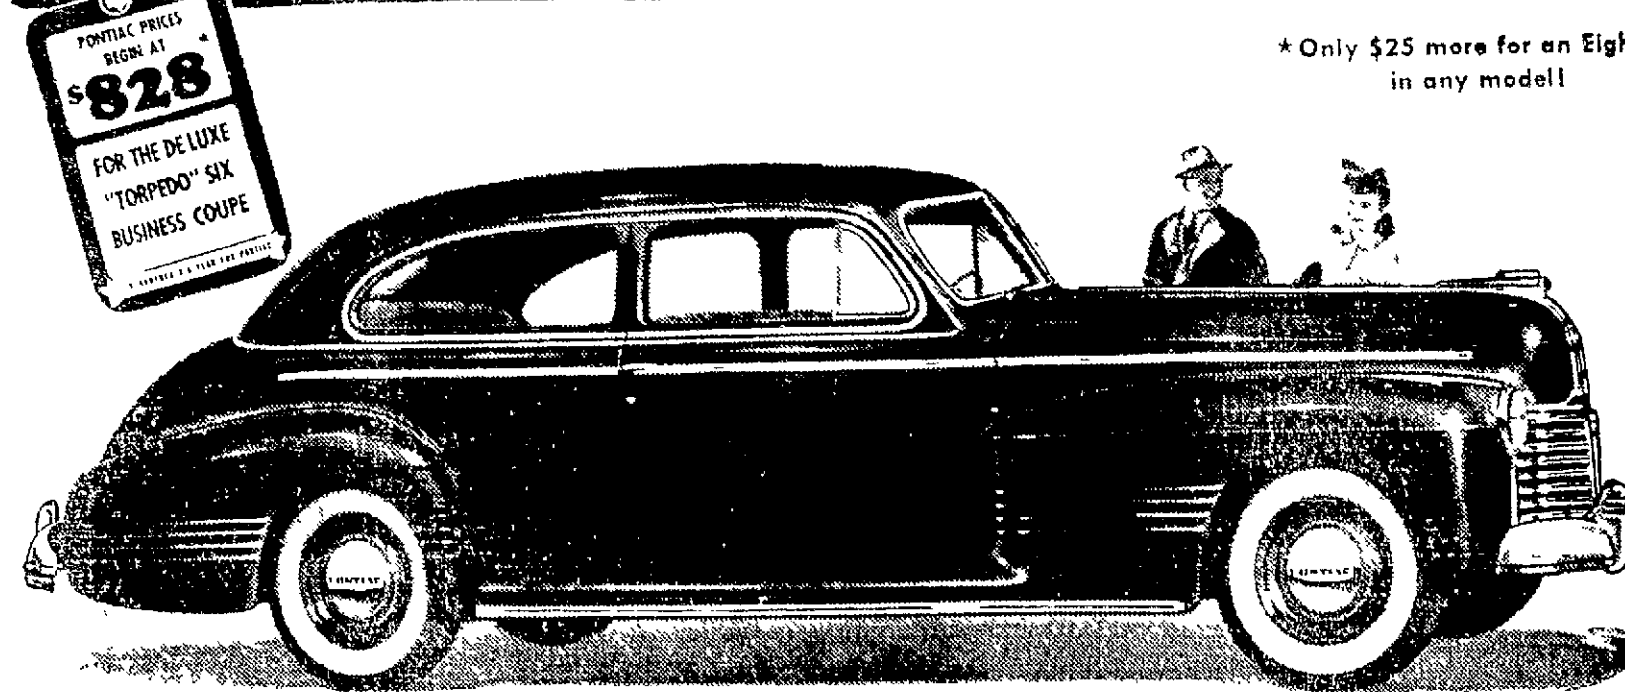

RICHARDSON IS NEW LEADER OF GROUND GAINERS

Seattle, Nov. 14.—(P)—Jimmy Richardson, the "one-man gang" from Milwaukee's Marquette University, soared from twelfth to first place as the nation's leading gridiron ground gainer with his sensational showing against Manhattan in last week's 45-41 game. All he did against Manhattan was run the ball 175 yards and pass it 183 for a total of 358 yards of his team's 409 yard net. He threw eight of his team's nine pass completions, then dangled down the fairway to catch the other one—but his team lost. His total of 1,055 yards for six games placed him ahead of a couple of 1939 leaders—Johnny Knolla of Creighton and Paul Christman of Missouri. Knolla ranks second with 986 yards and Christman rose from eighth to third by boosting his total offensive yardage to 980. Al Gresquire of Detroit retained his lead as the top rusher with 732 yards in seven games, substantially topping them. Hamilton with 613. Hamilton, for weeks the total offensive leader, tumbled to seventh in that classification after running into the Minnesota mud. Owen Price of Texas Mines retained his punting lead although figures were unavailable on his last game.

THOUSANDS GREET RETURNING DUKES

Pittsburgh, Nov. 14.—(U)—Several thousand Duquesne University football rosters jammed the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad station last night to welcome home the Dukes' team that scored a 7-6 victory over St. Mary's at San Francisco Sunday. The players, grinning from under 10-gallon hats they acquired in the far west, trooped off a train to find themselves serenaded by the university band and cheered by the jubilant crowd of students and followers. Coach Buff Donelli was hauled to the shoulders of several students and paraded around the station. When he regained his breath later Donelli said that while the victory was welcome, he wasn't satisfied with the team's showing. "We should have won by two touchdowns," he said.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
New York, Nov. 14.—Boston College is 5-7 over Georgetown in Saturday's football headliner. La Mar's first official act as a pro was to accept a week's engagement to warble in a Broadway theatre, beginning Dec. 28. Attention, Yanks and Giants: Both Hank Greenberg and Frank McCormick, voted the most valuable players in the two big leagues, are products of New York's Bronx.

Names Is Names.
One of the Oklahoma A. and M. backs is Looney. Georgia has a back named Kluk whose first name isn't Kluk. Texas Tech does all right on the defense when the Messis, Iron, Stone, Bain and Shields are all in there. And Major and Minor are two of the key players at South Bend's Catholic High.

Miss Marble bounced back into the papers yesterday by predicting Helen Jacobs would succeed her as queen of the amateurs. James Joy Johnston is burned up because Illinois ruled out his Tommy Tucker as an opponent for Billy Conn. A baseball man who usually knows what's going on wires that if Jim Farley buys the Yanks he'll use money provided by stockholders of the soft drink firm which recently made Farley an officer.

Personal: Will Mr. Scogans of Charlotte, N. C. who wrote this department recently, please send his address? The Inverness Club of Toledo gave Byron Nelson a big dinner and fat purse for his fine work on the links this year.

Hot Spots.
The boy stood on the burning deck. Said he, "I'm in a spot. 'At that, I wouldn't trade with Peck. 'This seat is not as hot!'

One-Minute Interviews.
Frank Leahy: Harry Mehre's Mississippi crew is the best Notre Dame team I've seen since 1920. Harry Mehre: Leahy must have been referring to his own team. Gabby Hartnett: Was it a surprise? Tom Lieb: On what the two teams showed me. I think Mississippi State is better. Jock Sutherland: Sammy Baugh's passing never will be any better than it was against ers dropped three to Sales and fell into fourth position. The Engineers took all four from Process to retain sixth place and keep the latter in last place. Stenkamp rolled a 235 game for one of the evening's honors and Diabhem took care of the other with 590 which included a 220 game.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By the Associated Press
Oakland Calif.—Tony Olvera, 119½, Oakland, stopped Black Joe, 120 Philippines (7). Philadelphia Jimmy Tygh 138½, Philadelphia, outpointed Carl (Red) Guggino, 137½, Hartford, Conn. (10).

HE'S PERFECT PASSER

Pittsburgh, Nov. 14.—(P)—Jack Stettler, Pitt second string, left half, has a perfect 100 record at passing. He has thrown one completed one, caught one, intercepted one.

Lumberjerk cheese first was marketed in Limbourg, Belgium whence it derives its name.

us Sunday for the very simple reason that there couldn't be better passing. Babe Horrell, I don't think any team in the country can keep Stanford from scoring. Chick Mehan Over-emphasis on football is what you keep out of the papers. De-emphasis is what gets in.

Ah, Ha!
No wonder Idaho U. hadn't scored a point all season until last Saturday. When one of the assistant coaches showed up to scout the Eastern Oregon College. Education team, he found he was exactly 24 hours late.

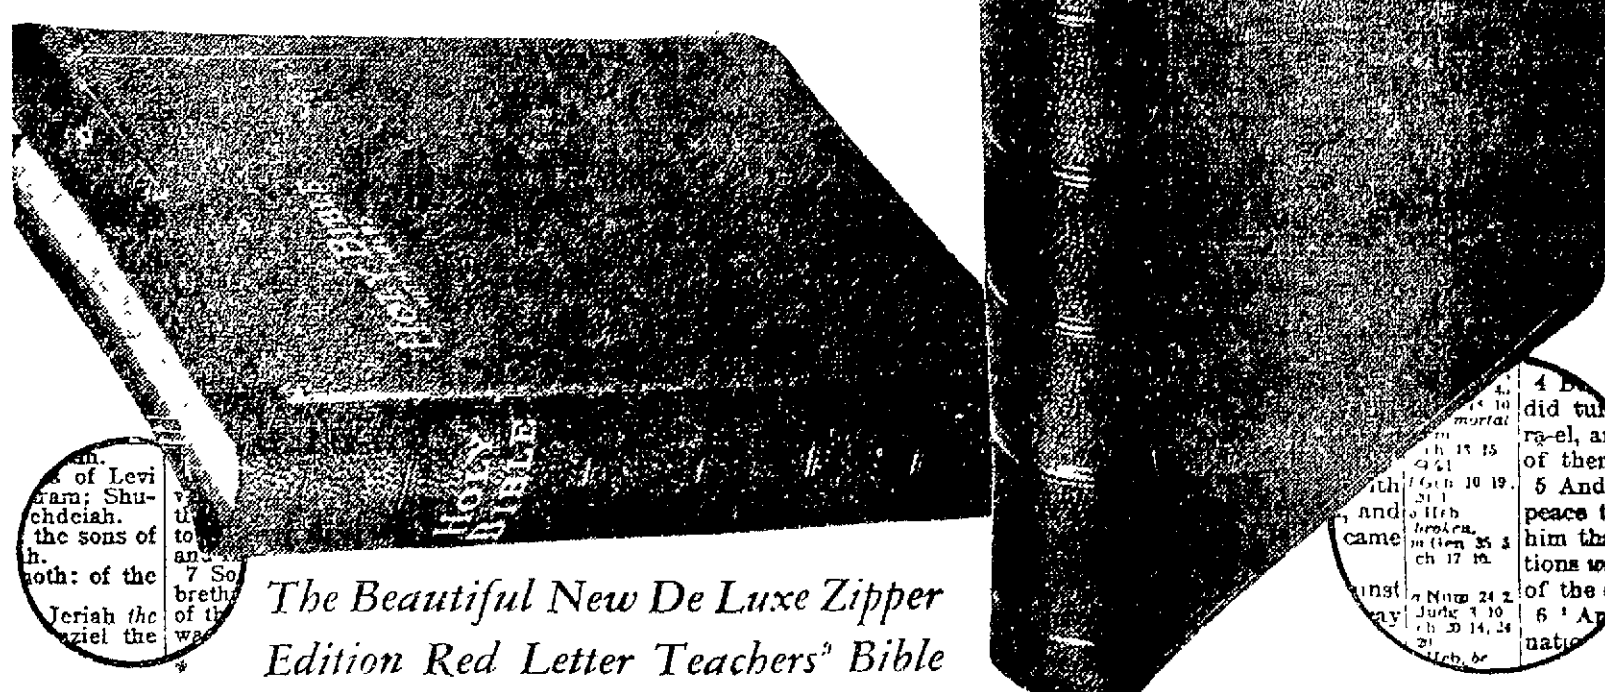

Today's Guest Star.
Lewis Burton, N. Y. Journal-American. "The Heisman Memorial Trophy poll is being taken, but about the only issue is who'll run second to Tommy Harmon."

All Banks To Close Both Days

all their hearts and give them strength," the proclamation set forth. "The twin birthrights of all Americans are hope and courage."

"Let us praise God and give thanks for his countless blessings, both material and spiritual, give the people of this commonwealth and this nation, and pray that we may continue to dwell together in unity and in the bond of peace."

Numerous complications are ahead for Pennsylvania because of the two Thanksgivings.

All banks in the state will be closed on both days because both become legal holidays by the acts of the president and governor. The Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank, however, will be open November 28, Pennsylvania's Thanksgiving.

Since the New York Stock Exchange and other national markets will be closed on November 21, the Philadelphia Stock Exchange and the Bourse will follow suit—but both will operate as usual November 28.

Retail stores in Philadelphia will be open November 21. With banks closed, however, many will be confronted with a problem.

There will be no mail deliveries in Pennsylvania next Thursday because post offices, which are under the federal government, will be closed. Service will be curtailed to some extent November 28, post office officials said.

State and municipal employees in the state will observe the day set by Governor James, but most federal employees must work that day.

In Pittsburgh, the retail merchants association and the Chamber of Commerce will follow Governor James' proclamation and observe the holiday on Nov. 28 instead of Nov. 21.

Spain Seeking $100,000,000 Loan From U. S.

(From Page One)
government, it was said, to feed and rehabilitate a hungry and impoverished Spain, which has been unable to achieve recovery from its long and destructive civil war.

American officials had no comment on the Spanish government's reported request for financial aid.

The Spanish government has acknowledged Spain's serious food shortage by assuming government control over production, sales, and exports, and by strictly rationing basic foodstuffs.

So small are carrot seeds that 257,000 weigh only one ounce.

Governor Indicates He May Ask Democratic Leaders to Help

sides can agree. We might be able to work things out along that line.

James and his advisers are working on the budget now, gathering estimates of possible revenues and probable expenditures.

All revenue-producing measures must be introduced in the house, under the law. The governor has left no doubt that the administration would introduce the Earle one-cent taxes to finance relief for another two years.

On this score, he'll win Democratic approval. Asked if there was a doubt about that, Leo A. Achtmann (D-Monroe), who is slated for speaker of the 1941 session, asserted: "Well, they were our taxes."

The governor reiterated there would be no new taxes, pegged on a belief in the decline in unemployment relief, quite sharp in this state for the past year, would continue strong enough to balance finances by the end of the next biennium, June 1, 1943.

Divinity Pupils Go to Prison

Kenneth Walzer, counsel for the students, said, "their consciences hold them to the teachings of the Great Master."

"They believe those teachings to mean what they say," he went on, "and they find in them instructions to have nothing to do with that mass killing which is called war."

"They cannot register, I put it that way, instead of, as Mr. Cahill did, 'they refuse to register,' because they are committed to a great cause."

"Under the law, they could not have been required to serve in the army or navy. They actually gave their names and addresses to the draft board, but they refused to sign the yellow card, submitting themselves to the provisions of the act. Instead, they presented a signed statement telling why they had failed to do so."

Brief Communique Issued After Soviet Commissar Starts Home

(From Page One)
Moscow by Von Ribbentrop is contemplated.

While the world awaited concrete manifestation of the outcome of the parleys here, Germany and Russia lost no time in resuming their economic negotiations.

Karl Schunke, head of the German economic delegation to the U. S. S. R., returned on Molotov's train to Moscow, as did the German ambassador to Moscow, Count Friedrich Von Der Schulenberg. The German delegation had been in Moscow for some time before Molotov's visit.

Molotov was accompanied to Anhalter station by Ribbentrop, with whom he had a final conference of several hours last night after a brilliant formal reception at the Russian embassy.

British Warplanes lent a touch of excitement to the Russian statesman's last night in the German capital by raiding the city for the first time since his arrival Tuesday morning.

An official announcement said the raiders dropped bombs "aimlessly" over the outmost suburbs but declared strong anti-aircraft defenses had kept them away from the center of the city.

Some fires were started in the outskirts of the capital but they were quickly extinguished, the announcement said.

Innocence Their Armor

Armored by a childish innocence which can't realize the horrors that threaten them, these little English children escape the shock of aerial bombardment which shatters adult nerves. When Nazi bombs above their orphanage, there were no casualties, but buildings were wrecked. In the striking photo, the children unconcernedly play at their table next morning, while, in background, others inspect the damage.

British Shells Burst In Answer to New Hitler Diplomacy Stroke

answer to Hitler's newest stroke of diplomacy. They gave Russia's Premier Molotov his first taste of an air raid. Moreover, the air battery said that the raiders bombed a railway station, freight yards and other objectives in mid-Berlin, despite miserable flying weather.

The attacks on the German capital were carried out during "widespread operations" over Germany in the face of "extremely adverse weather," a communique declared.

Among the targets listed as bombed in the Berlin area were the Schlesischer railway station and the Grunewald freight yards.

Bombs started a "number of fires," the Ministry said.

An electrical power station at Cologne, inland docks at Duisburg-Ruhrort, industrial targets at Dortmund and Dusseldorf and a battery of coke ovens at Luttiford all were said to have been attacked and "hundreds were observed on all these targets."

Other objectives, the ministry's communique said, were oil plants at Gelsenkirchen, Hanover and Leuna, airdromes at Haamstede, Kreuzbruck and Lubeck and a seaplane base at Nordenham. Docks at Calais and Wilhelmshaven also were reported bombed.

Babe in the Woods

Lying among leaves and twigs like the babes in the woods of legend fame, 2-year-old Murray Upshaw was found by searchers just a mile and a half from his home in the foothill country near Cartersville, Ga. The boy had wandered away from home and was the object of a four-day search. Death was attributed to exposure.

While half of the announced goal of 600 members, new and renewal, was reached at the second report dinner in the annual Y. M. C. A. Call to Membership last evening, the total was well under that of last year on the same day and workers were urged by General Secretary R. W. Reynolds to put forth their best efforts during the remaining two days to reach the 1939 mark.

With only eight of the nine teams reporting last night, there were 78 additional memberships reported to bring the total to date to 303 memberships, both boys' and men's, new and renewal.

A good attendance of workers at the third report dinner, to be held this evening at 6:30 o'clock, was urged by Mr. Reynolds. He asked that every worker contact his prospects in order that a good showing may be made.

He pointed out that in order to reach the 1939 total of 654 memberships in the campaign, 351 remain to be obtained in the two days. He stated that on the third report night of 1939, there were 140 memberships reported to bring the total on that day to 479.

In last night's report, the team led by A. H. Templeton was high with 19 memberships and 131 points. Second in line was that of C. F. Schindler with 15 memberships and 104 points.

"It is imperative that the goal set in the campaign be reached," Mr. Reynolds said last night. "Unless we reach that mark, we will be unable to continue the work in the community which has been carried on by the Y. M. C. A."

He urged workers to show more enthusiasm in their efforts to help put the membership drive over the top.

Grand Valley

John L. Lewis and Possible Successor

At C. I. O. conference preceding the organization's coming convention, John L. Lewis sat next to Philip Murray, S. W. O. C. representative, who is considered a possible successor to Lewis if the C. I. O. chief offers his resignation. Lewis made a campaign promise to resign if Willkie was defeated in the recent election.

INSTITUTE FOR S. S. TEACHERS BEING PLANNED

An Institute for Sunday school officers and teachers of Warren county will be held at Warren on Saturday afternoon and evening, November 23rd. This institute is under the auspices of a committee of the Warren County Ministerial Association with lay representatives from each of the several communities in Warren county, the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Five nationally known leaders will take part in the group conferences. There will be a banquet at the Y. W. C. A. where color moving pictures of the famous First World Christian Youth Conference at Amsterdam, Holland, in 1939 will be shown.

The evening service will be open to the public. It will be held in the First Methodist church. The meeting will be addressed by Miss Emily Parker, of Richmond, Indiana and New York, formerly with the Spanish Child Feeding Mission and now with the Foster Parents Plan for War Children, Inc. Miss Parker is a member of the Society of Friends. Her topic will be: "The Church and the Present World Situation."

Leaders for the Institute will include: Arthur R. Bodmer, director adult work, Pennsylvania Council of Christian Education; Lee J. Gable, director, leadership education, State Council Christian Education; Mrs. Paul Keyser, children's leader in conventions and summer conferences; Edward H. Bonsall, Jr., director young people's work, State Council Christian Education; Emily S. Parker, field worker, Foster Parents Plan for War Children, Inc.

This institute has been carefully planned, and the committee has held several meetings since early summer.

METZGER WRIGHT CO

Billy Meyer or Jim Wilson May Pilot Chi Cubs

(From Page Twelve)
Billy Meyer, Kansas City manager, received permission from his employers, the New York Yankees, to negotiate for a major league position. (Yesterday Meyer declined to comment when asked if he was to become manager of the Cubs.)
Wrigley promised that the new man would be picked before the winter baseball meetings starting Dec. 4.
After Hartnett, Wrigley said, "We are not blaming Hartnett—he has done everything he could, but we feel it is up to us to try and keep on trying to get the best possible combination of personnel to produce the best possible results."
Hartnett was decidedly surprised at the dismissal from his only major league stand since he came up from Worcester of the Eastern League in 1922.
"I had understood differently. ...but you can't bellyache or cry," he commented. "It comes to almost everybody some time. I only hope the next guy will have a better time of it here."
